

Profile:

Kambobe Malasha joined CUTS International in 2023, and is currently the Assistant Programme Officer in charge of climate change and development at the center. Her responsibilities include development of concept notes, proposals, research, reports, projects implementation, monitoring and evaluation, development of policy briefs, and e-newsletters, events organization, fundraising and representations.

Experience and skills

CUTS International (July 2023 – Present) Research Assistant

- Writing proposals and conducting research
- Performing various administrative duties
- Conducting interviews for project facilitators
- Supporting the programmes department projects under economic governance, climate change and gender.

ActionAid Zambia (August 2022 - January 2023) Intern

- Supporting governance research by collecting data and setting appointments with key stakeholders
- Attending meetings focused on economic justice and governance issues
- Performing administrative tasks for various programmes
- Conducting policy analysis, research, and advocacy
- Assisting with policy analysis under the Education Out Loud project

GIZ-Zambia (July 2020 and March 2021) Short-term Consultant

- Conducting a survey to assess CSOs' involvement in community interests and local government responsibilities in nine locations
- Aggregating survey results and calculating percentages per question, individual, sector, and location
- Data entry and analysis
- Ensuring timely and well-evaluated completion of all tasks

Supplementary information

Email : kma@cuts.org

Mobile phone: +260972296901

Ms. Kambobe Malasha

Position: Assistant Programme Officer,

Year of Birth: 2000

Nationality:

Zambia

Languages:

English – Fluent

Qualification:

BA. in Economics, The University of Lusaka Zambia.

Additional trainings:

- Policy analysis
- Monitoring and Evaluation
- Women's land rights leadership and empowerment

Key skills,

- Communication skills-Written and verbal
- Planning and organization.
- Quantitative and qualitative analysis
- Partnership development.
- Research
- Policy Analysis
- Project planning and management